TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

Born Yesterday—
 A fine son weighing 10 pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry McDermott of this city yesterday. Both mother and son are doing very nicely.

Decoration Day Trip—
 On Decoration Day next Saturday the steamers R. Miler and Julia B. will make a trip to Greenwood cemetery.

Police Court—
 At police court yesterday five drunks were reported, four of which were juggled at one time, by Officer Linville, unaided, and were fined $5 each.

Deeds That Passed—
 U. S. to Santa Fe Pacific R. R. Co., SE. 1-4 sec 33-4-10-W.—Santa Fe Pacific R. R. Co. to Hammond Lumber Co., same land; $680.—Hans Jacobson and wife to R. E. Bryan, SE. 1-4 sec. 33-7-9 W.; $1000.

Broke Her Propeller—
 The steamer General Washington is laid up for repairs to her propeller, two blades of which she had the bad luck to snap off on Wednesday's trip. Captain Keating and the Pilot No. 2 were doing duty on her run yesterday.

Temperance Meeting—
 There will be a temperance meeting in the Presbyterian Church in Alderbrook this evening at 8 o'clock. The Rev. T. A. Scarvie of Seattle who is traveling under the Reforms Bureau of Washington, D. C., will speak. Everybody is invited to attend.

Returned From Coos Bay—
 The Rev. Gustaf E. Rydquist of the First Lutheran church returned from a trip down Coos Bay country and reports the boom down that way is about over. Around Marshfield and North Bend real estate is still being held for high prices, but business is very dull.

At The Parsonage—
 The Dorcas Society of the First Lutheran Church will be entertained this Friday evening at the parsonage of that church, No. 1717 Franklin avenue. There are important questions to come up for consideration, and all members are urged to be present and all friends are cordially invited.

Interscholastic Debate—
 W. W. Cotton of Portland and State Senator Bingham of Eugene will be two of the judges in the interscholastic debate at Eugene tonight. Prof. Garman, who has been instructing the home team, left for Eugene on last night's train.

Special Meeting—
 A special meeting to take place today at Chinook, Wash., has been called by the president of the Columbia River Pound Net and Seiners Union. Several members from the Astoria union will leave for Chinook by the Louise launch and McGowan's fish tender.

Will Go Through—
 It is announced from headquarters that the night express on the A. & C. reaching this city at 9:50 o'clock tonight and tomorrow night, will go on through to Seaside. This is probably by way of inaugurating the summer schedule which was to have opened up on Monday next, and which will be carried out.

To Be Heard Today—
 Attorney John C. McCue went to Cathlamet yesterday evening to be present at the hearing of Michael Campbell upon the charge of killing John McClellan, before the magistrate of that place at 10 o'clock this morning, the matter having been reset for 24 hours earlier than the original order of court.

Off For Cathlamet—
 Miss Lenora Benoit, the popular public stenographer, will leave up for Cathlamet on this morning's boat, at the instance of the County of Wahkiakum to be present and serve the State of Washington, in the preliminary examination of Michael Campbell, who is to be examined there today. Miss Benoit expects to return this evening.

Astoria Has 150—
 Geo. B. Thomas, of Portland, acting under the Rose Festival Committee, has built a splendid grandstand, 200 feet in length, which will safely and comfortably hold 2000 people, from which its occupant can behold the glories of four fine parades, two by day and two by night. Reservations for people from this city 150 in number will be made until Friday next, at $4 for the full season, or at $1 for each for the parades. Those of this city who desire to secure this advantage will do well to see Chairman Lamar of the Chamber of Commerce committee, who will see that all reservations are promptly made.

Road In Shape—
 Word came over from Iyaco yesterday that Manager E. R. Budd had gotten the railway line from that town, up the river to Megler, in safe and sound condition for travel, and that the plans of the parent system, the O. R. & N., for the summer traffic direct from Portland to the north shore and its sea resorts, will be opened up on Monday next in formal shape.

Hunters Are In It—
 The new schedule of the A. & C. just out, provides a commutation rate for hunters, as between Astoria and Holton, which practically gives them an advantage of a 20 per cent discount on the flat rate, each way, upon the several rates between this city and the various points this side of Holton. It is good from August 31st to February 1st, annually, and they are limited to March 1st.

Certificates of Approval—
 The committee on streets and public ways, the city surveyor and superintendent of streets have found the certificate of approval for the construction of a sewer on Eighth street from Harrison to Lexington avenue and construction of a sidewalk on Exchange street from the west line of Sixth street to a point 17 feet west of the east line of Fourth street and the construction of a sidewalk in front of lot 1, block 20, Adair's.

Well Known In Astoria—
 Word reached this city yesterday that Walter H. Irving, at one time local manager for the Kamm boats and interests in this city, and well known and thoroughly respected here, had died at Cape Horn, Washington, on Monday last. He had been general manager for the Pend d'Oreille River Navigation Company, at that point, and only relinquished his duties on account of broken health. Mr. Irving was born in Albany, Or., April 28, 1879, where he lived until February, 1898, when he removed to Portland. He was in the employ of the Pacific States Telephone and

One Thousand At Hand—
 C. E. Foster, fire chief of this city, and, incidentally, record-keeper of the Knights of the Maccabees of Astoria, yesterday received from the treasurer of the order, a draft in the sum of $100, in favor of Mrs. C. R. Morse, the widow of Astoria's late, lamented merchant, who is now in Metamora, Mich., and to whom the snug sum will be forwarded under due processes. It is just 46 days since Mr. Morse died.

Left Last Night—
 Rev. W. S. Gilbert of the First Presbyterian Church left last night for Hammond where he will address the graduating class of the grammar school. He will leave Hammond on Friday for Portland where he will take a prominent part in Memorial day exercises. On Saturday afternoon he will deliver an address at the Spanish War Veteran's monument on the Plaza block, and on Sunday morning he will preach at the Presbyterian Church. In the evening a special military service will be held at the same church at which Rev. Gilbert will address the Third Regiment, O. N. G., Battery A, Field Artillery, the Hospital Corps, Camp Young and the Spanish war veterans.

Miss Goldman's Lecture—
 One hundred and twenty-nine people were present at the Astoria opera house last evening to listen to Miss Emma Goldman, the high priestess of anarchy in this country. The major portion of the audience was present with the speaker and her doctrines. Miss Goldman was introduced by C. J. Curtis, the well known attorney and assistant secretary of the Clatsop County Republican central committee, who alone attended the speaker upon the stage throughout the address. Miss Goldman is a ready talker and has her theme well in hand at all times, and from her extraordinary viewpoint, is quite interesting. She is a personable lady and has an excellent voice and clear enunciation. Her subject matter last night had to do with the precept that the government is not only non-essential but decidedly injurious to society and should be dispensed with, and will, in time.

Bad Attack of Dysentery Cured.
 "An honored citizen of this town was suffering from a severe attack of dysentery. He told a friend if he could obtain a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, he felt confident of being cured, he having used this remedy in the West. He was told that I kept it in stock and lost no time in obtaining it, and was promptly cured," says M. J. Leach, druggist, of Wolcott, Vt. For sale by Frank Hart and Leading Druggists.

Telegraph Company as electrician until the summer of 1901, when he resigned his position, having been engaged by the Vancouver Transportation Company, of which Jacob Kamm is president, to install electric lighting apparatus in the company's steamers. He remained in the employ of the Vancouver Transportation Company in various capacities until August 25, 1907, occupying the position of manager or the company after the death of Chas. T. Kamm, early in 1906. In the summer of 1907 Mr. Irving was offered the position of general manager of the Pend d'Oreille River Navigation Company, with headquarters at Newport, Wash., on the Pend d'Oreille river, which he accepted and held until March 1, 1908, when he was obliged, because of failing health, to retire from active work. His faithful and tireless attention to the interests of his employers won for him their confidence and high regard, and his lovable disposition endeared him to all his friends and acquaintances. He leaves a widow, but no children.

Announcement.
 R. M. Woodin desires it announced to the voters of Clatsop county, that he is a candidate for the Oregon Legislature from this county, and is running upon Statement No. 1, first, last, and all the time, on the Democratic ticket; and asks the suffrages of the people of this county on that basis.

Officers Promotion.
 SEATTLE, May 28.—A special despatch to the Post Intelligencer from Tacoma says:
 Rear Admiral C. S. Sperry, commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet, said to-day that he had recommended to the Navy Department that Captain Richard Wainwright, in command of the second division be appointed acting rear admiral at once. That it is the purpose of the navy department to place Capt. Wainwright in command of the fleet for part of the cruise around the world is the belief of the officer Capt. Wainwright's promotion would ordinarily have come when he was on his way to the orient.

NEW YORKER KILLED
Automobile Accident at Seattle Kills Mrs. Ottolenguy
FALLS OVER EMBANKMENT
Seven Other Members of Party Receive Slight Injuries—Twelve-Year-Old Girl Only Witness—Runs Three Quarters of a Mile For Help.

SEATTLE, May 28.—Mrs. Amanda Ottolenguy, of New York City, was killed when an automobile carrying seven people fell over the embankment on Magnolia Bluff and landed on its back with every member of the party underneath. Vera Brace, a twelve year old girl, was the only witness of the accident, and ran three quarters of a mile to interbay for help. It was nearly half an hour before men were able to get the car propped up and release the imprisoned people.
 The car was owned by I. E. Moses, one of the wealthiest Jewish property holders in the city and was driven by his son, E. I. Moses. The others in the party were Mrs. I. E. Moses, Mrs. Jos. Schermer and Mrs. D. Dinkel-spell, of Seattle and Mrs. Naberger of Portland. Every member of the party received slight injuries, and the younger Moses has a badly crushed leg, which was pinned by the front of the car.
 The accident occurred on a side hill, with a steep slope of 150 feet down to salt water. The front of the car landed on a cedar stump which such force as to stave in the cylinder, and to allow the sides of the car to touch the ground, thus imprisoning every occupant.
